

Neubert, Pepe & Monteith, P.C. Expands Its Office Space in Fairfield CT

Fairfield, Connecticut (May 8, 2014) – The law firm of Neubert, Pepe & Monteith, P.C., currently with offices in Fairfield CT, New Haven CT and White Plains NY, has recently expanded their Fairfield office located at 2150 Post Road, Fairfield, CT. The firm doubled their square footage, now enjoying larger office space and updated amenities. Neubert, Pepe & Monteith has had a local presence in Fairfield County since 1996, establishing an office within a few years after their founding in New Haven in 1993.

Attorney Greg Pepe, president and one of the founders of the firm states, “As Neubert, Pepe & Monteith continues to grow we are constantly seeking ways to provide better service to our clients, while at the same time mindful of keeping our firm nimble and cost effective.”

Attorneys in the Fairfield office, several of whom reside in Fairfield County, will focus on the areas of litigation, banking and commercial finance, real estate, bankruptcy and health care, though the firm will also provide its clients’ comprehensive services for all of the firm’s practice areas. Mr. Pepe continues, “The expansion of our Fairfield office space will provide us with better capabilities to serve our clients in Fairfield County, and combined with our newest office in White Plains, continues our expansion into this vital business area of Connecticut and New York.”
