

Neubert, Pepe & Monteith Attorneys and Staff Hold a Food and Clothing Drive to Help Those in Need

New Haven Law Firm Supports Loaves & Fishes Food Pantry

New Haven, Connecticut (December 19, 2013) – The attorneys and staff at the law firm of Neubert, Pepe & Monteith, P.C. held a food and clothing drive to benefit the Loaves & Fishes ministry at St. Paul & St. James Episcopal Church, New Haven. This ministry, which depends on donations and volunteers, began with a food pantry and now includes the Clothing Closet, an inviting children's area, free blood pressure screening and basic medical check-ups.

Employees of Neubert, Pepe & Monteith are fortunate to enjoy their holidays with friends and family and they especially wanted to mark this time of year and good fortune as a time of giving. The firm's collection for Loaves & Fishes included monetary donations, six boxes of non-perishable food and two large bags of gently used clothing.

Neubert, Pepe & Monteith's employees are committed to community involvement and service. Firm members proudly serve in leadership positions with many civic, charitable, education and community organizations in Connecticut and regularly participate in charitable events and fund raising drives. Support of the Loaves & Fishes program is part of the firm's continuing commitment to the welfare of the community in which they serve.
