

Neubert, Pepe & Monteith, P.C. Celebrates 22nd Anniversary

Michael D. Neubert, Gregory J. Pepe & Deborah Monteith Neubert Founding Partners

NEW HAVEN, Connecticut (May 6, 2015) – Neubert, Pepe & Monteith, P.C. a New Haven, Connecticut based law firm announced today that May 2015 marks the firm's 22nd year anniversary of its founding.

Twenty-two years ago, Neubert, Pepe, & Monteith, P.C. founders Michael D. Neubert, Gregory J. Pepe and Deborah Monteith Neubert established the firm with the goal of providing quality services; namely to provide clients with the highest quality legal representation, to provide personal attention responsive to individual needs and to provide these services in an efficient, cost effective manner. Adherence to these founding principles has established Neubert, Pepe & Monteith, P.C. as an informed and respected law firm with their clients and within the community.

"All of us at Neubert, Pepe & Monteith feel fortunate to be working in an environment where we are appreciated by each other and by our clients," said Gregory J. Pepe, President. "We continue to seek productive ways to participate in our community, in our employees' well-being, and in the needs of our clients and make the firm a leader in value and responsiveness."

From the original three attorneys, the firm has grown to twenty-eight attorneys with offices in New Haven and Fairfield, Connecticut and White Plains, New York. Neubert, Pepe & Monteith's team has depth and talent. The firm concentrates on recruiting and retaining creative and dedicated attorneys who have the exceptional legal and professional skills required to meet clients' objectives. The firm's dedication to client success and team of talented professionals has made them able to better serve clients locally and nationally.

Experienced attorneys provide legal representation in many practice areas including: Professional Malpractice & Liability Defense, Litigation & Appeals, Health Care Law, Bankruptcy, Commercial Finance & Banking, Real Estate, Construction Law, Employment & Pension Law, Taxation, and Trusts & Estates.

Neubert, Pepe & Monteith's clients include financial institutions, large to small-sized businesses, publicly held corporations, hospitals, municipalities, insurance companies, universities, not-for-profit organizations, and professionals (e.g. physicians, lawyers, architects, engineers, and real estate agents). The firm offers innovative solutions to clients' unique problems and the diverse practice areas allow them to handle these varied legal needs.

Neubert, Pepe & Monteith is engaged in their community. The firm supports numerous philanthropic causes of interest to firm members and the broader community. Firm members passionately support local and national campaigns and regularly invest time, talent, financial support, and sweat equity to medical, cultural, social service, and educational endeavors. In addition to philanthropic causes, the firm supports attorneys' pro bono legal service work.

Michael D. Neubert and Deborah Monteith Neubert add, "It is a thrill to be celebrating the Firm's 22nd anniversary. We want to thank all the wonderful people who have worked here over the years and shown the type of dedication and enthusiasm for our practice that makes it such a special place to work.

We also want to thank our clients for their loyalty. We cherish the close working relationship we have developed with so many of them over the years. We look forward to continued success in the coming years and building on the wonderful relationships we have formed over the years.”
