

Jonathan R. Longobardi Installed as Western New England University School of Law Alumni Association Board President

NEW HAVEN, Connecticut (November 14, 2018) – Jonathan R. Longobardi was recently sworn in as President of the Board of Directors for the Western New England University School of Law Alumni Association for the 2018-19 term. The Alumni Board of Directors works to connect graduates of the law school with one another and foster deeper engagement with the School and students.

Jonathan Longobardi

As Attorney Longobardi enters his sixth year on the Board and first as President, he has set an aggressive agenda including the creation of an endowed scholarship fund benefiting law students. “This is year one of a multi-year commitment that our Board and Alumni Association is making to the school and, more directly, the students,” states Attorney Longobardi. “Never before has the Alumni Board taken on a task of this magnitude.” The goal of the scholarship fund is to secure $40,000 in donations over the next five years. When that goal is met, the scholarship will become endowed. Attorney Longobardi notes the large number of engaged Alumni in New England and throughout the country. He sees this Alumni network as a strength, collectively, to effect positive change for students and the School.

Western New England University School of Law will celebrate its centennial in 2019 and Attorney Longobardi hopes that the upcoming celebration coinciding with the recently announced scholarship fund will raise awareness of the Alumni Association’s mission. The Alumni Association wants students to know that, as future alums themselves, the Association supports them now and throughout their careers.
